

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

MEDIA ADVISORY

October 21, 2014

MAYOR ERIC JACKSON ANNOUNCES A SEASON OF SYMPHONY, HIGHLIGHTS THE NEW JERSEY CAPITAL PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

WHAT: Mayor Eric Jackson will kick off the New Jersey Capital Philharmonic Orchestra's 2014-15 season, which starts on October 25 at 8 p.m. at the War Memorial with a performance by pianist Awadagin Pratt. On Wednesday morning, he will be joined by Gloria S. Teti, president of the philharmonic's board of trustees, Maestro Daniel Spalding, and violinist Nelly Federova, who will perform a short piece.

WHEN: Wednesday, October 22 at 10 am

WHERE: Office of the Mayor
City Hall
319 East State Street – 2nd Floor – Mayor's Conference Room
Trenton

INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITIES:

- Mayor Eric Jackson
- City Council President Zachary Chester
- Gloria Teti, President – Board of Trustees
New Jersey Capital Philharmonic Orchestra
- Maestro Daniel Spalding
New Jersey Capital Philharmonic Orchestra
- North Ward Councilwoman Marge Caldwell-Wilson