TRENTON MAYOR ERIC JACKSON APPOINTS BOARD MEMBERS TO LIBRARY AND PARKING AUTHORITY

Trenton, N.J. — On Monday, Mayor Eric Jackson appointed William (Bill) Watson and Deniece Johnson Jackson to the boards of the Trenton Parking Authority and Trenton Public Library, respectively.

Mr. Watson, a business owner, fills a board vacancy on the Trenton Parking Authority left by Joyce Kersey, whose term expires on June 30, 2016. Mrs. Johnson Jackson fills a Trenton Public Library board vacancy left by the late Judge Virginia Dietrich, who passed away last year. Her term expires on June 30, 2015.

"These outstanding Trentonians will serve our city with distinction and with the best interests of their city neighbors at heart," said Mayor Jackson.
