Mayor Tony F. Mack Appoints Denise Millington to Board of Education

TRENTON—Mayor Tony F. Mack named a new appointment to the Trenton Board of Education. Denise Millington was sworn-in on Friday, January 6, 2012, in the Mayor’s Conference Room. She fills an immediate unexpired term expiring on May 15, 2012. Denise Millington has worked in Mercer County for over 15 years and has been a life-long education advocate.

“With experience in various parent teacher associations, Denise Middleton is a perfect fit for the already diversified Board of Education. Her insight and strong advocacy will provide a new outlook on many issues. We look forward to having her on the board,” stated Mayor Mack.

Her diverse experiences are indicative of her ability to lead a renaissance in Trenton Public Schools. She holds over 16 certificates which validate her experience in the working field. She also served as an advocate for children with special needs and works with both parents and schools to ensure equality for all children.
