Trenton Municipal Court Will Be Closed on Friday, June 24

Trenton, N.J. — Trenton Municipal Court will be closed on Friday, June 24, 2016, so that court staff can participate in Active-Shooter Training, city spokesman Michael Walker announced today.

Until 1:30 p.m. on Friday, the Trenton Police Department at 225 N. Clinton Avenue will accept bail at its main window on the 1st floor. After that, Trenton Municipal Court's cashier windows will open to service constituents with other payments, including bail transactions.

Payment of traffic tickets can be made online at njmcdirect.com with a ticket number and its prefix code, license plate number, and the Trenton Municipal Court Code, which is 1111.
