Unfinished Business

1. Spay/Neuter Program:

- The board discussed potential grant opportunities identified by Dr. Robinson to support low-cost and subsidized spay/neuter services. Dr. Robinson noted outreach to House Paws, and mobile services are not provided. Further inquiries will be made with People for Animals and local providers.
- Action Items:
 - Dr. Robinson to contact People for Animals in Robbinsville and circulate a grant template.
- Ms. Desire Walker to compile information on similar programs and associated costs, including the local $10–$20 programs
- This item was tabled for continued discussion at the next meeting.
 - Motion to table: Dr. Robinson
 - Seconded by: Ms. Desire Walker
 - Vote: Approved unanimously

2. Chicken Ordinance Review:

- The board received a virtual presentation from Ms. Gwenee Baile on implementing backyard chicken ordinances. Ms. Baile described her experience piloting successful ordinances in Haddonfield and other municipalities, emphasizing the importance of education, licensing, and community buy-in. She recommended a two-year pilot program and outlined key elements, including training classes, inspections, and advisory boards.
- Board members discussed the challenges of adapting such a program for Trenton, including yard sizes, existing chickens, enforcement, and ordinance structure.
- Action Items:
 - Ms. Janina Calle to research NYC's chicken ordinance.
 - Ms. Destiny Walker to review 3-4 NJ city ordinances to research training and enforcement costs and structures.

New Business

1. Board Bylaws and Roles:

- The board agreed on the need to draft bylaws specifying member roles, quorum requirements, and procedures for replacing members. Members also shared their individual backgrounds and goals for contributing to the board, including public education, outreach, fundraising, and business partnerships.

2. Fundraising Opportunity:

- Ms. Seeland noted a potential partnership with School of Rock to support fundraising efforts for the spay/neuter program, to be presented to Dr. Minacapelli at the next meeting.
